Overview

This Privacy Policy describes how The Style Space LLC ("we," "us," or "our"), based in Montoursville, Pennsylvania, collects, uses, shares, and protects personal information when you visit www.stylespace.studio (the "Site"), inquire about or purchase interior design services, purchase curated home decor bundles, or arrange for products to be sourced from third-party vendors. This Policy applies to information collected through our Site and related business communications.

Information We Collect

Depending on how you interact with us, we may collect your name, email address, telephone number, mailing, billing, or shipping address; information you submit through contact forms, design questionnaires, consultations, and messages; room measurements, photographs, design preferences, budgets, and other project details you choose to provide; and information about orders, invoices, purchases, and service requests. When you make a payment, payment details may be collected and processed by our payment-service providers. We may receive transaction confirmation and related billing information. We do not represent that we store full payment-card numbers ourselves.

Information Collected Automatically

Our website and service providers may automatically collect technical and usage information, such as IP address, browser and device details, approximate location inferred from IP address, referring pages, pages viewed, and dates or times of visits. This information may be gathered through cookies, analytics, and similar technologies to operate the Site, understand usage, and improve its performance.

How We Use Information

We use personal information to respond to inquiries; provide consultations, design recommendations, and other services; prepare proposals and invoices; process orders and payments; communicate about purchases and projects; coordinate shipping and deliveries; provide customer support; maintain business records; secure and improve the Site; and comply with legal obligations. We may send service-related messages about an inquiry or transaction. If we send optional marketing emails, recipients may request to stop receiving them.

Third-Party Product Sourcing and Fulfillment

In addition to curated bundles sold through the Site, we may help customers source furnishings and decor from independent third-party vendors. When a customer purchases or arranges delivery of a vendor-sourced product, we may provide the vendor or fulfillment provider with information reasonably necessary to process the order, such as the recipient's name, shipping address, contact details, and relevant order information. Such products may be shipped directly by the vendor. Vendors may process information under their own privacy policies.

When We Share Information

We do not sell or rent customer lists. We may share information with service providers that support website hosting, payment processing, communications, analytics, customer service, order management, and shipping; with product vendors as described above; or when necessary to comply with law, respond to legal requests, protect rights and safety, or complete a business transfer. We share information for legitimate business purposes and seek to limit disclosure to what is reasonably needed. Certain analytics or advertising technologies, if enabled, may involve additional data sharing governed by applicable law.

Cookies and similar technologies may support website functionality, security, preferences, and analytics. You can generally manage cookies through your browser and, where available, the Site's cookie-preference controls. Disabling certain cookies may affect website features. The technologies in use can change as website settings and integrations change.

No electronic system can be guaranteed completely secure. We retain personal information for as long as reasonably necessary to provide services, manage transactions and records, resolve disputes, and meet applicable legal requirements, after which it may be deleted or de-identified.

Your Privacy Choices and Requests

You may contact us to request access to, correction of, or deletion of personal information we hold about you. We will respond in accordance with applicable law and may need to verify your identity.
